

NOTE:

STATINTL In review of the DD/P internal communication concerning the review of the galley proofs of [REDACTED] testimony there appeared to be a misimpression that DD/P was not to review for comprehensibility. STATINTL

STATINTL Consequently, I informed [REDACTED] that in fact Sourwine would in no way object to such help, including a review by [REDACTED] himself and STATINTL that what I had told [REDACTED] was in the review not to touch Sourwine's questions, which was done one time in the past and quite properly disturbed Sourwine.

STATINTL [REDACTED] said he understood this but that he felt we had done all we should do with respect to the testimony, i. e., review for security.
